

Linking Learning

When supporting and observing children the following grid may be useful to support, move on and attain evidence of their learning.

Children's Hero	Characteristic of learning link	Attitudes to Learning	Development Matters Links
	Playing and Exploring
Super Explorer	Finding out and exploring	Learners Brave	Shape, space and measure Exploring and using materials Being imaginative
Have a go hero	Willing to have a go	Brave Amazing Attitude Independence	Self-confidence and awareness (The world) Exploring and using materials
I know Agent	Playing with what I know		Speaking Managing feelings and behaviours Being imaginative
	Active learning
Fantastic focus	Being involved and concentrating	Amazing attitude Disciplined	Attention and Listening The world
Keep it up Captain	Keeping on trying	Resilient Amazing Attitude Faith to succeed	(Throughout)
Achieving Superhero	Achieving what I set out to do	Disciplined	(Throughout)
	Creating and thinking critically
Link and Learn Hero	Making links	Determination Learners	Speaking (Reading, Maths, The World), Exploring and Using materials
Super Chooser	Choosing ways to do things	Independence Faith to Succeed	Self-confidence and awareness Technology Exploring and using materials Being imaginative
Agent Ideas	Having my own ideas	Learners	Speaking Self-confidence and awareness (Making relationships)
Behaviour Policy	Earning gems through being	Encouraging – Runs throughout expectations and Fruits of the Spirit Values

This is not an exhaustive or exclusive list but will help make some links with children's learning journey's. Characteristics should be seen throughout all areas and in independent and supported work.